EVELYN S. BRUNNER, CPA, ELECTED TO THE BROADCASTING
INSTITUTE OF MARYLAND HALL OF HONOR

Evelyn S. Brunner, CPA, CVA and Chief Operating Officer at Gorfine, Schiller and Gardyn, P.A. has been elected to the Hall of Honor of the Broadcasting Institute of Maryland. Nominees must be an active member in the alumni association or a loyal friend to the Institute for at least ten years. Evelyn has been the Accountant for the Institute since January 1985.

Induction to this elite society is limited and designates those who have given in an extraordinary way to the Broadcasting Institute of Maryland. Honorees are also inducted into Alpha Beta Kappa, the national honor society of the Arts, Sciences, Trades, Business, Technical and General Studies. Founded in 1969, the Broadcasting Institute of Maryland offers training for on-air and behind the scenes broadcasting careers.

Evelyn specializes in general accounting, financial reporting, and financial planning. As a Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA), she has experience performing business valuations and other consulting services for closely-held businesses.
