JAMES L. FLESHMAN III JOINS INAUGURAL CLASS OF GIVE PROGRAM

James L. Fleshman III, Tax Accountant at Gorfine, Schiller and Gardyn, P.A. has been selected to participate in the inaugural class of Business Volunteers Unlimited Maryland's Getting Involved with Volunteer Experience (GIVE) program. The initiative introduces young professionals to improving their communities through volunteerism and leadership.

GIVE classmates will spend the next two years learning about issues facing the community and developing civic leadership skills. The experience culminates in a volunteer leadership position with a local nonprofit organization. Participants also gain hands-on board experience by serving on the GIVE advisory board.

James has been with Gorfine, Schiller and Gardyn, P.A. for over three years. He specializes in corporate and individual tax. James is currently working towards his CPA.
